Todd R. G. Hill

GOVERNANCE · FIDUCIARY RISK · INDEPENDENT OVERSIGHT

An independent governance and fiduciary-risk practice, retained when the record is scattered, the accountability is unclear, and the downside is material.

§1 APPOINTMENT

STATUTORY · PUBLIC TRUST

SEAT	Public Director — consumer representative
BODY	Texas Property & Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association
APPOINTED BY	Commissioner of Insurance, State of Texas
AUTHORITY	Texas Insurance Code, Chapter 462
TERM	Through December 31, 2029

One of four public representatives appointed to the Association's nine-member board.

§2 CREDENTIALS

LL.M., Texas A&M University School of Law (2026)
— with certificates in Wealth Management and Risk Management
J.D., Purdue Global Law School
Executive M.B.A., Quantic School of Business (Valar Institute)
B.A., Philosophy, University of California, Los Angeles

§3 THE PRACTICE

THREE MANDATES · ONE STANDARD

TRANSACTION CERTAINTY
Structure, sequence, and signing authority verified before capital moves.

GOVERNANCE ARCHITECTURE
Decision rights, consents, and records built to withstand later examination.

RISK & RECOVERY
Control and disposition of distressed positions under court or contract authority.

The standard: independence; the public-trust standard — records kept, conflicts disclosed, decisions defensible; scholarship and record.

§4 RECORD

FIRM	Intrustum — Managing Director
HERITAGE	Founded as American Eagle Equity Assets LLC
WRITING	Underwritten — governance, fiduciary risk, and the record
CORRESPONDENCE	todd@intrustum.com

Every mandate is directed, decided, and signed at principal level. Judgment, on the record.

Mandates are accepted through American Eagle Equity Assets LLC, operating as Intrustum — a Texas advisory practice. The firm is not a law firm, is not a public accounting firm, and is not an investment adviser.
